INTRODUCTION TO THE HARVARD AUTHOR-DATE REFERENCING STYLE

The Harvard system is another name given to the Author-Date style of referencing and citation.

Examples in this document have been based on the following text; Style manual for authors, editors and printers 2002, 6th edn, rev. Snooks & Co., Wiley, Milton, Qld

IN-TEXT REFERENCES

- Harvard uses the 'author-date' style of referencing. That is, in-text references (generally) appear in the following format:

(Author's Last Name Year of Publication, Page Number(s))

Example: (Austen 1813, p. 64)

- You are also permitted to include the author's name in a sentence, omitting it from the brackets.

Example: Austen (1813, p. 64-67) observes that...

- If you are referring to an entire work, include only the author's last name and year of publication in brackets. If you are referring to part of a work, you must include page numbers or their equivalent (see specific examples for more information).
- When citing a source you have not read yourself, but which is referred to in a source you have read, use the following method:

Moore (as cited in Maxwell 1999, p. 25) stated that...

Important: You would cite Maxwell, not Moore, in the Reference List

Please Note: It is always preferable to cite the original source

REFERENCE LIST

- The reference list should appear at the end of your work on a separate page
- Only include references you have cited in your work
- References should be listed in alphabetical order
- All references should have a hanging indent. That is, all lines of a reference subsequent to the first should be indented

BOOKS

One author – in-text reference placement

Note: There are two main ways to use in-text references. Firstly, to focus on the information from your source – ‘information prominent’. Secondly, to focus on the author – ‘author prominent’.

‘Information prominent’ (the author’s name is within parentheses):

The conclusion reached in a recent study (Cochrane 2007) was that...

One author – when fewer than 30 words are quoted

Include the material in the paragraph and include specific page number/s.

Use single quotation marks to show the exact words.

An interesting view was expressed that ‘the connection of high profile developments to their surrounding environment has increasingly been questioned’ (Cochrane 2007, p. 117).
